Re: Nelson Quintanilla, et al. v. Suffolk Paving Corp., et al.
Case No.: CV-09-5331 (SJF) (AKT)

Your Honor:

This firm is counsel to all defendants in this action. We write in connection with the Court's September 30, 2014 Order on Defendants' motion for summary judgment and the corresponding Order of May 11, 2018 establishing a trial date of November 5, 2018.

We respectfully seek the issuance of the written decision. As it stands, the motion was granted in part and denied in part. Consequently, for purposes of preparing for trial, it is imperative that the parties know which claims are to be tried. Further, since the filing of the motion papers in 2013, there have been wholesale changes to the caselaw governing this dispute. In essence, had the papers been filed today, the analysis of the facts and allegations, and our arguments in support of dismissal, would be far different than those contained in our original filing. Our concern being that certain issues will have to be re-briefed as the passage of time alone may have rendered certain arguments stale. At a minimum, pre-trial memoranda will be necessary.
